

Cuarto Dominio is a small family winery born from two 4th generation families in the art of viticulture and winemaking.

Andres Blanchard Perez belongs to the 4th generation of a French/Spanish origin family with a long tradition in viticulture.

Javier Catena Pedro is 4th generation winemaker of Italian origins, his family has been producing wines for over 110 years.

Coty joined Cuarto Dominio in 2017 and became head of winemaking and production in 2019. She studied in Mendoza and has travelled around the world making wines.

LOTE 44

Selection from Lot #44 La Consulta vineyard
 95% Malbec / 5% Cabernet Franc, 6 months French oak
(750ML X 12)

TOLENTINO

Grapes from small lots in high altitude vineyards
 Named for small Italian town where Javier Catena's great grandfather was born.
 95% Malbec / 5% Cabernet Franc, 6-8 months in French oak
(750ML X 12)

BLANCAT ESTATE PARCEL

Vineyards sourced from estate and also vineyard partners throughout Uco Valley. On any given year, the best parcel is chosen to produce this wine which represents the partnership of Blanchard and Catena families
 100% Malbec, 10-12 months in French oak
(750ML X 12)

CHENTO VINEYARD SELECTION

A selection of three separate parcels from their vines in La Consulta
 90% Malbec / 10% Tannat, 10-12 months in 100% French oak
 Chento is the name of a beloved vineyard worker who has worked with the vines of their estate for over 40 years
(750ML X 12)

TRADICIÓN DE FAMILIA

Grapes from two small and soil-unique parcels from their San Carlos vineyards in La Consulta, 900m above sea level
 90% Malbec / 5% Petit Verdot / 5% Cabernet Franc, 24 months in 100% new French oak
Parcel "A" lends ripe plum and chocolate flavors, structure and length, while "J" offers blackberry w earthy mineral tones, spicy black pepper, high concentration and floral aromas
(750ML X 6)

LIGHT/MEDIUM

MEDIUM

FULL