Family Wines Since 1902

CUARTO DOMINIO
- MENDOZA/ARGENTINA -

BCD is a small family winery born from two 4th generation families representing over 110 years in the art of viticulture and winemaking

- Andres Blanchard, 4th generation of a family with Spanish and French origin and a long tradition in viticulture, also makes wines with famous French winemaker Francois Lurton (Blanchard y Lurton).
- Javier Catena belongs to the 4th generation of the prestigious Catena family originating from Italy. His father Jorge Catena Zapata sold the shares at the family winery “Catena Zapata” about 10 years ago.

BCD Profile

- 90 points or more from international wine press for the last 14 consecutive vintages. Additionally, featured by Wine Enthusiast (March 2017) as one of the top 5 most innovative wine projects of Argentina.
- Wine style: elegance, complexity and drinkability as noted by James Suckling. The wines are a true expression of one of the oldest vineyards in the Uco Valley. At BCD we don't look for over ripening and over extraction but for freshness and elegance.

is awesome” ... (March 2022)

2022 Vintage Team

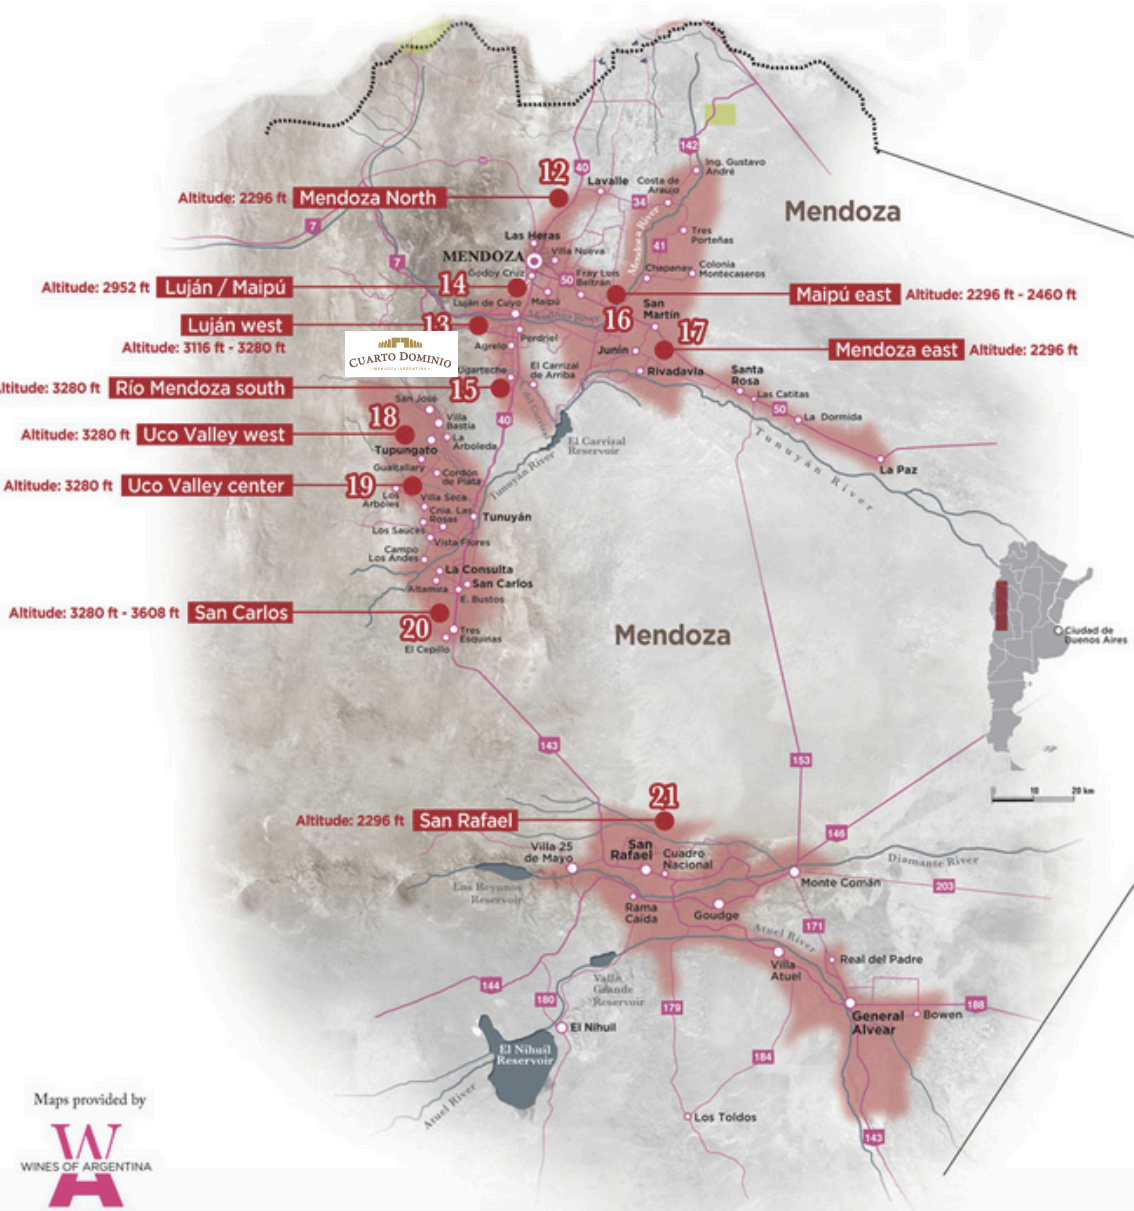

HIGH ELEVATION - KEY FACTOR – SOILS & CLIMATE – HIGH ALTITUDE DESERT OASIS

UCO VALLEY : 3.600 feet elevation – LOTE 44 , Blancat Parcel, BCD

ALTO AGRELO UCO VALLEY: 3.300 feet elevation – TOLENTINO & CHENTO

Higher in altitude, cooler climate and nearer to the Andes Mountains where the finest grapes give origin to the most elegant and complex wines of Argentina.
