

Quality • Drinkability • Tradition

For almost 30 years, Boutinot has vinified Cuvée Jean Paul (lovingly, "CJP") Rouge from Grenache and Syrah grapes harvested in the Vaucluse area of the Southern Rhone.

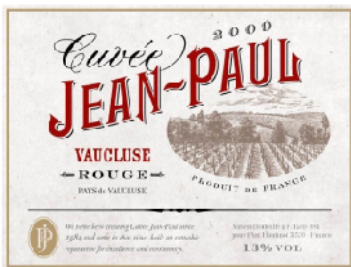

This humble, classic Rhone red has hints of plums & strawberries with a touch of spice. This soft, medium bodied wine is uncomplicated, friendly & warming making it the perfect wine to pair with both light & rich foods. Don't let the price fool you – this is a serious wine!
