Domaine Poli Île De Beauté
I.G.P. Niellucciu Rosé 2016

“No surprise that Corsica is nicknamed Île de Beauté. It is one of the most beautiful places I have ever visited, with views of the Mediterranean in one direction and snow-capped peaks in the other. The wines are beautiful and distinctive, too. This one, made from niellucciu, genetically similar to sangiovese but adapted over time to Corsica, is salty, savory and refreshing.” — Eric Asimov
