

91 POINTS VINOUS

Jean-Marc Burgaud
Régnié 'Vallières' 2016

From a 55-year-old, 1 hectare parcel yielding approximately 500 cases per annum. "Bright ruby. Mineral-and spice-driven red fruit and floral aromas show very good clarity and pick up a hint of succulent herbs with aeration. Lively and focused on the palate, offering subtly sweet raspberry and lavender pastille flavors that unfurl steadily on the back half. In a nervy style, with no excess fat and a long, red berry-dominated finish that's framed by silky, even tannins."

Only 10-15% Régnié is estate bottled and 60% is sold as Beaujolais-Villages
