Domaine de Lancyre
Roussanne 2016

"The 2016 Igp Saint Guilhem le Desert Val de Montferrand Roussanne offers lots of melon and apple fruits, as well as more brioche and honeysuckle on the palate, medium-bodied richness and good acidity. Made from 85% Roussanne, with the balance Viognier and Marsanne, it has outstanding potential. It's worth noting that this white from Lancyre comes from the northern, cooler parts of the appellation, where there's slightly more elevation and limestone/-clay soils. This cuvee drinks nicely in its youth, yet also has the capacity to evolve for a decade or so."
