

RYAN PATRICK

2022 'ROCK ISLAND' RED WINE BLEND

TASTING NOTES

A delightfully fruity and light red blend. Soft notes of dark cherry and purple fruits, with hints of old-fashioned cherry candy on the finish. Velvety tannins.

VARIETALS

41% Cabernet Sauvignon, 31% Merlot, 28% Syrah

AVA

Columbia Valley

VINEYARDS

Frenchman Hills, Rosebud, Ravenscliff

VINEYARD NOTES

The Columbia Valley, in the rain shadow of the Cascade Mountain Range, has an arid climate that requires irrigation for vinifera grapes. The Columbia River and its tributaries supply a reliable water source for this cultivation that help produce a robust array of varieties.

Alc. by Vol. 14% | RS: .94 g/L | TA: 7 g/L | ph: 3.78

Production: Harvested in the early morning, 80% stainless steel aged, 20% barrel aged in American oak.

BRAND MISSION

Ryan Patrick vintners select only the most promising grapes from which to produce the wines. This sentiment is carried throughout the entire winemaking process. Traditional winemaking principles are paired with only the finest fruit. The result is wines that are balanced, well-integrated, and fruit-forward. They can be enjoyed immediately or cellared for additional depth and complexity. Ryan Patrick wines are the embodiment of a dream woven into years of dedication and hard work.

POINTS OF DISTINCTION

OUR STORY

We are a family owned Washington grown business. At Evergreen Family Wines we craft our wines with the love for our state first and foremost with the uttermost concentration to create excellent wines at values that are incomparable.

With over 3,000 estate acres located on the Wahluke Slope AVA and Ancient Lakes of Columbia Valley AVA, and two state-of-the-art wineries, we have the ability to be Washington State's largest grape to table wine company. All our wines utilize estate grown fruit using sustainable farming methods.
