Vina Chocalan Gran Reserva
Origen Cabernet Sauvignon 2014

"One of the best values today from Maipo, this comes from a vineyard 21 miles off the Pacific Coast. It's a subtle, refined example of Maipo Costa, as Chileans call the area: It's filled with the scents of fresh herbs and generous layers of red lush fruit. The tannins are soft and gentle, making it a soft-spoken kind of wine, ready for venison."
