

91 POINTS WINE ENTHUSIAST

Col Vektoraz "Coste di Levante"
Valdobbiadene Prosecco Brut 2023

"This is hillside Prosecco that shows why site matters. It's from one of Valdobbiadene's steeper slopes and arrives with something of a real presence. Crisp green apple and white peach get lifted by a chalky mineral streak that speaks of those limestone soils. Bubbles have precision rather than just fizz, making this more dinner party material than a mimosa mixer."
