WINERY OVERVIEW

Veneto-based wine industry veteran Alessandro Furlan made wine at his family's vineyard in Friuli, "Franco Furlan," for years before deciding to start his own label with longtime friend and owner of Regal Wine Imports, Charlie Trivinia. Alessandro's grandfather started the family tradition of working in the wine business when he worked in retail during WWII. His son, Alessandro's father, started the "Franco Furlan" wine label in the late 1960s. Alessandro decided to go beyond the family business to chart his own path, and while working as a wine consultant and educator, he saw an opportunity to create his own wine brand. "Ca" means home and family in the local dialect of northeast Italy, so the name Ca' Furlan references Alessandro's roots in the historic regions of Friuli Venezia Giulia and Veneto, both places Alessandro calls home.

Sourced from some of the best vineyards in the Prosecco DOC, Alessandro works with local partners to carefully select and blend the wines to maintain a consistent style with fresh flavors for the Ca' Furlan line of wines: the Prosecco, Prosecco Rosé and sparkling Moscato. The wines are carefully blended and bottled at a leading Veneto producer's facility.

The main production facility used to meet the demand for Ca' Furlan is located in the Montello – Colli Asolani DOC in the province of Treviso, in the foothills of the Veneto region west of the Dolomite mountains and the plain leading to Venice. This area of the Veneto has a temperate climate, and historical records show that vine-growing has taken place here as far back as the period of the Roman Empire.

The wines in the Ca' Furlan line are named in honor of women in the Furlan and Trivinia families. Prosecco Cuvée Beatrice is named after Alessandro's daughter, Beatrice. Moscato Cuvée Adriana is for Alessandro's wife, Adriana, and Prosecco Rosé Cuvée Mariana is a Trivinia family name.

Ca' Furlan also offers 200ml 3-packs of Prosecco Cuvée Beatrice and Prosecco Rosé Cuvée Mariana.

TERROIR

Gravelly, pebble sediment

VINIFICATION

85% Glera, 15% Pinot Noir. Gentle pressing of clusters with membrane presses, immediate skin separation and static cold-setting for clear must. Alcoholic fermentation takes place in controlled temperature tanks at low temperatures, utilizing cultured yeasts.

RESIDUAL SUGAR: 11 g/L

TASTING NOTES

Pale salmon color. Sweet and spritely aromas of lemon peel, watermelon rind, with verbena, crushed sweet tarts and floral perfume. On the palate, this is dusty and chalky with well-woven sugar. White peaches, raspberries and lemon tones mix with sea salt and floral perfume. Medium sweetness is balanced well.
