

CHABLIS GRAND CRU BOUGROS

Light gold, expressive, soft and fresh body, a wine full of promises. Full and pleasant, it has a brilliant and light appearance of the fine wines as well as a great aromatic persistency.

This Chablis Grand Cru is produced on 0.70 hectares. It is a part of the seven Grands Crus. You can find in this wines all the fineness and richness of a great Chardonnay.

- Grape variety : 100 % Chardonnay
- Soil : Kimmérdgien - Argilo-Calcaire
- Situation : west / north-west
- Average age of the vines : 35 years

Serve at : 12°C.

You can keep it 3 years before tasting, but you can wait around 15 years before open it.

