Glaetzer

Shiraz 'Eye of Ra' 2016

“Bottled but not yet labeled, with a possible release set for mid-2019, Glaetzer’s 2016 The Eye of Ra Shiraz boasts classy notes of pencil shavings and dark, plummy fruit. From 85-year-old vines, it’s full-bodied, rich and creamy, loaded with vanilla-tinted French oak but balanced by blueberries and blackberries and ending with lasting hints of mocha and licorice. It returns Glaetzer’s traditional Barossa winemaking to a new level of quality and elegance without sacrificing power or guts.”
