

Orealios Gaea “R” Robola

Area:

100% Robola Zone, Cephalonia

Variety:

100% Robola

In the glass, the wine presents a subtle lemon color, touched with golden accents. Its inviting aromas weave together scents of dried oregano and tarragon with hints of fresh peach and tangy lime zest. The taste is notable for its green tea and herbal notes, balanced with flavors of white fruit and a saline minerality. Bright, clean, and sharp, this Greek white is perfect to enjoy with chilled seafood topped with a citrus-herb vinaigrette, or alongside a serving of white anchovies, olives, and bread.

OREALIOS GAEA, Vine Growers of Robola Cephalonia, is a cooperative founded in 1982, central to the production of the island's esteemed Robola wine. By maintaining traditional techniques, the cooperative continues to champion Cephalonia's unique wine culture on the global stage.
