

DOMAINE PORTE ROUGE 2020 CHÂTEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE CUVÉE TRADITION

Created in 2003 by Bernard Friedmann, Domaine Porte Rouge is an organic winery located in Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Taken over by the next generation of winemakers from Domaine du Pegau, Laurence Feraud, and her children, Justine, and Maxim now run the estate. Guided by their respect for traditions and family know-how, Justine and Maxim breathe new energy into Domaine Porte Rouge through their common passion for vines and wine.

VINEYARDS

Certified organic. 3.5 ha of old vines over 6 parcels to the north and west of Châteauneuf-du-Pape in Colombix, Pied de Baud, and Les Pialons. Planted across four types of soils: deep, stony, sandy, and clay/limestone soils marked by round galets typical to the region.

TASTING NOTES

Spicy nose of garrigue and fine cherries. A wine of great elegance and character. Delicate length with a spicy finish.

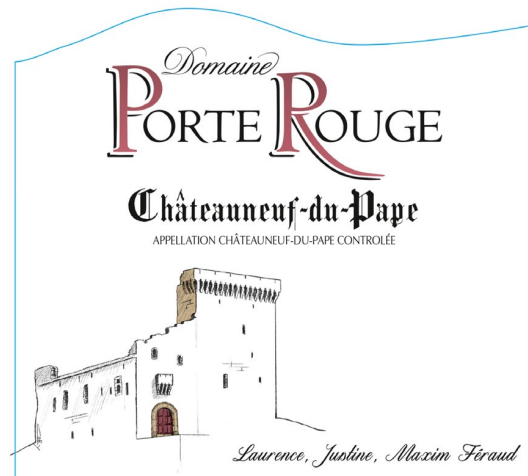

SERVE WITH

Enjoy this versatile, food-friendly wine on its own, with grilled red meats, stews, charcuterie with soft cheeses, and hearty vegetarian fare.

ACCOLADES

(90-92) pts, "...has a ripe, up-front, sexy style as well as impressive notes of candied strawberries, raspberries, wildflowers, and spice. Playing in a medium-bodied, more supple, elegant style, it has good tannins, rock-solid overall balance, and outstanding length." – JD, JebDunnuck.com, 11/21 (2020 vintage).

90 pts, "Notes of wild blackberries, damson plums, sweet spices and kalamata olives. Rich and creamy with a medium body and plush tannins. Round and fruity with a linear character. Supple finish. From organically grown grapes. Drink now." – JamesSuckling.com, 5/23 (2020 vintage).
